

Want to Launch a Small Business or Social Enterprise?

Our support and online workshops could get you started

Attracted by future employment opportunities which give you flexibility and control of your life? Fancy working for yourself, running your own business or starting a social enterprise but not sure where or how to start? Aged 19+?

Nicky Kent, our expert business and social enterprise advisor will provide a FREE two hour 1:1 support session, plus a number of online workshops for people in Shropshire, Telford & Wrekin who are not currently working.

Nicky will work with you to understand your needs, help you set your business goals and build your ideas through 1:1 support, online workshops and reviews, peer to peer support and more.

Our direct support is designed to increase your confidence and skills and we will work with you to gain the best outcome for you. We will teach you business skills and give you the training, theory and practice you need to get started.

Let us help you develop what you need to set up your own business.

We offer a learning experience like no other. You will learn new skills in a supportive, caring and interactive environment. You'll also receive follow up reviews and the chance of some fast track support.

Discover yourself – discover your new business
